

Geoffrey A. B. Ssenoga

Technical Instructor.

☎ +256777742728, +256701122704

✉ gssenoga@ucu.ac.ug , gssenoga@gmail.com

Biography:

Geoffrey AB Ssenoga is a print and audio-visual journalist of long standing. He specializes in documentary film making practices. He worked for the sole government station Uganda Television (UTV) as a television producer and the Uganda government owned New Vision newspaper as a writer. He has been a television production instructor since 1990 starting with the Uganda School of journalism at the institute of public administration (IPA) now Uganda Management institute. He later on joined Uganda Christian university school of journalism in 2008 as a technical instructor.

Qualifications:

- Certificate in Documentary film production, University of Capetown, 2016.
- Certificate in Film Production Workshops (Screen Writing, Directing, Producing, Cinematography), 2007.
- Certificate in Video Production Techniques Deutsche Welle TV (Germany), 1999.
- General TV Production Certificate, – TV Radio Netherlands Training Centre, Hilversum, 1990.
- Post Graduate Diploma in Education Makerere University, 1985.
- BA Hon. Literature and Political Science, Makerere University, 1984.

Research interests

- Literature to film adaptation
- Documentary film studies

Media Awards:

1. Journalist of the year 1991,
2. TV producer of the year 1991, 1995

Documentary Film Projects

- IK Musazi Documentary ;
- A Heroes legacy
- Air pollution in Uganda

From Martyrdom to Glory (A documentary film on the Uganda Martyrs)

Publications

- Ssenoga, G. (2013). Kony (2012) film Review. Journal of African Media Studies, Volume 5, Issue 1, Mar 2013, p. 101 - 105
- Ssenoga, G. (2017) Uganda: Social Media Seized the Narrative in Uganda's Election. Why This Was Good for Democracy. The Conversation